BRINGS IMPROVEMENT TO NEW ORLEANS TRACK IN ATTENDANCE AND RACING.

Harbard Wins All the Way in the Belmont Purse and Dr. Larrick Defeats Marion Goosby in the Dixie Handicap.

New Orleans, La., January 19.—An improvement both in the attendance and the racing came in the wake of the warmer weather which prevailed this afternoon. Track conditions also were better than on any day this week and this circumstance contributed its share to more interesting racing, as well as for the presence of a better grade of starters.

The Belmont Purse and the Dixie Handicap were the features and both were contested by some fairly good racers. Some of the finishes were exciting and aroused the big crowd to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

and aroused the big crowd to the highest pitch of enthusiasm.

Both features resulted in upsets, Ahara and Marion Goosby, the respective favorites for each, being beaten. Interference and poor racing luck contributed to their failure. Harbard led all the way in the Belmont purse with Rifle Shooter and Herbert Temple closest at the end. In the handicap, Dr. Larrick won from Marion Goosby, which was unlucky and finished fastest of all.

John W. Schorr's Gretchen R. showed a fairly good performance, when she scurried home in advance of Meddling Miss and Beaumont Lady in the opener. An inner-post position enabled her to win, as Meddling Miss and Beaumont Lady were forced to lose ground by coming wide.

Korfinge was a supposed "good thing" in the second, but he ran a dull race and finished a distant trailer. After the finish George Hennessy claimed him for $1,100.

Frank J. Nolan, owner of the Beverwyck Stable. Will be represented at this meeting, having secured cliff Edge from L. J. Carey.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

It is said that Miller Henderson has received a offer to train a division of the G. A. Cochran press and that he may accept.

The Sunter brothers, Johnny and Herbert, will ride abroad this year. The former has just accepted an offer of a guarantee of $5,000 for the season from an Austrian nobleman. He was told that mounts could also be secured for his brother if he made the trip. The Sunters will leave America on February 1.

on February 1.

The program book for the San Antonio meeting of twenty-six days has been issued. It calls for a daily distribution of $1,000, with an occasional handicap worth $250. The officers of the club are George E. Chambers, president; E. C. Noble, treasurer: Harry Simon, secretary and manager, and C. E. Mahone, racing secretary.

The unexpected result of the race in which

The unexpected result of the race in which J. J. Lillis defeated Bringhurst and Pan Zareta has whetted the New Orleans appetite for another meeting of the trio and, with a rearrangement of the weights, it will probably be brought about. There is a filly at the track which could probably run away from them all, if fit and ready. Her name is Polistena.

May W the Waits 69.

name is Polistena.

May W., the Weir filly, seems to be much the best of her sex shown among the juveniles exhibited at Juarez, while Bessanta, a stable companion, is also quite a speedy miss. Trainer Weir has been enabled to secure good prices against these filles every time they have gone to the post, and is a big winner. The best juvenile shown there, in the opinion of experts, is Hondo, a son of Plaudit. This youngster went down in defeat the first time out, as he ran green. He did not get to running until in the last sixteenth of the journey, but then finished in a manner to stamp him as a real runner.

SYNDICATE RING BETTING AT JUAREZ.

When the present contract for the betting privileges at the Juarez track expires tomorrow night, it is not thought that any difficulty will be experienced by Col. W. E. Applegate, of Louisville, the present holder, in coming to terms with Col. Matt J. Winn, manager of the Mexican course. During the past twenty days the meeting has proved so bighly successful that it is known that Col. Applegate desires to renew the contract, and it is quite probable that he will be given the betting privilges for about thirty days under the same terms as now prevail, says Walter H. Pearce in a letter of January 17 to the Louisville Courier-Journal.

Colonel Winn has returned from a vacation trip through Arizona and was delighted at his inspection of the receipts during his absence. They exceeded his fondest expectations. There is plenty of money in sight and the books are handling around $20,000 each day. On Sundays and ladies' days, however, the amount often goes above $25,000, so it can be seen that the ring is certain to make money.

According to those in a position to know about the doings of the syndicate controlling the ring its is claimed that the ring is about $17,000 behind. The included the $6,000 paid to Col. Hippolito Villa for included the $6,000 paid to Col. Hippolito Villa for included the $6,000 paid to Col. Hippolito Villa for included the $6,000 paid to Col. Hippolito Villa for included the $6,000 paid to Col. Hippolito Villa for included a willingness to gamble. While the books formerly were 40 to 60 per cent. strong, an inspection now shows that frequently they are dealing to about 25 per cent. This is more to the satisfaction of the public, which is willing to take a chance when the "strangle hold" does not prevail. Form has been pretty well conserved at the Juarez course during the past couple of weeks and this has helped to keep the syndicate from getting out of the hole. The expenses of operating the ring are roughly estimated at about $2,500 a day, so it can be seen that it will not take any the proposa ards.

That this rider "pulls" horses frequently is the general belief, but one of the stewards has several times expressed the opinion that this rider is stricty on the level, and that those who speak ill of the boy are doing him a gross injustice. That the rider in question has been refused a license in Kentucky, however, is well known to turf followers.

SUPERIOR NEW RACING PUBLICATION.

MANY THOROUGHBREDS REACH NEW YORK.

New York, January 19.—The steamship Lord Erin arrived here today from France with forty-seven head of horses, believed to belong to F. R. Hitchcock, John Sanford and possibly some from the Herman B. Duryea stable. Others have left France and England and are espected to arrive on the next Atlantic transport steamer.

J. E. Davis, well-known owner of steeplechasers and president of the Fiping Rock Racing Association, has recovered from his recent operation.

George Loft, a well-known manufacturer of confections, councilman and probable candidate for mayor of New York, is a newcomer on the turf. His horses will be trained by Max Hirsch.

J. C. Brady, owner of the Hamilton Farm in New Jersey, and an exhibitor of show horses, has also decided to enter the ranks of thoroughbred owners.

OWNER BEDWELL PILING UP MANY RACES

Havana, Cuba, January 19.—The Bedwell stable cored its twentieth victory of the Oriental Park neeting, when Marjorie A. won the third race this afternoon.

A large crowd was present, many tourists being among the number.

Maxim's Choice, favorite for the fourth dash, had a rough race, being caught in a jam at the far turn and knocked back.

Twenty horses, en route here from Juarez, will leave New Orleans next Saturday.

Sam Crane was among the arrivals teday.

was among the arrivals today.

WEIGHT HAS NO TERRORS FOR WILHITE.

El Paso, Texas, January 19.—Wilhite again demonstrated what a good horse he is just now. when he carried the exacting impost of 132 pounds to victory in the seven-eighths handicap, that was the chief offering in a racing way at Juarez this afternoon. The son of Radford was badly outpaced in the early running, but moved up with a rush when called on, and his winning margin over the lightly-weighted Little String, which had moved up simultaneously, was a neck.
